

GOVERNMENT OF GERMANY TAKES TREATY CALMLY, BUT PRESS STORMS

Feeling of Confidence Prevails in Berlin at Ratification of Peace, Despite Unfavorable Domestic Activities and Strike News—Public Is Apathetic.

SURRENDER QUESTION CAUSES AGITATION

Some Germans Profess to Fear Effect on People if Officers Choose to Kill Selves Rather Than Face Trial.

Special Cable to the Post-Dispatch and the New York World.

BERLIN, Jan. 12.—No official proclamation to the German people marked the ratification of the peace treaty. Apathetic Berlin went about its business Saturday, taking not the slightest notice of the passing of the historic hour. 4 p. m. Only the Berlin house showed any interest, enjoying a "peace bull market" in the morning, with all stocks, even war loans, on a rising market, and closing firm. There is a confident feeling, despite the unfavorable domestic strike news and activities, as a result of ratification.

The "peace treaty division" of the Foreign Office has long been organized and is in smooth working order for tackling the detailed treaty fulfillment problems. German commissions are ready at a moment's notice to start East to fix new boundaries, whenever the allied commissions give the signal. It is understood that members of the Entente commissions in Berlin already have been in touch with members of the corresponding German commissions and in many cases have come to working agreements. The Government attaches importance to creating a favorable initial impression that Germany will not stall or balk on any terms, however hard, but that it is eager to live up to the treaty and carry out its terms in good faith "as far as humanly possible."

Some Requirements Impossible.

A joker in the official German attitude toward the treaty is that some of its terms will prove practically impossible of fulfillment, notably those clauses requiring the surrender of German territory to the allies. In official quarters it was asserted, however, that the Government would not make a formal demand for relief even from this provision, which is regarded as crucial here.

Nevertheless, in the next few days and weeks, the world will be bombarded with individual German appeals and utterances arguing that it would be to the best interest of the allies not to press Germany too hard on the question of surrendering German territory for trial, because it would imperil the democratic Government and strengthen reaction.

The surrender question is the sole remaining menace to the German republic today, a deputy official told the correspondent, and some Germans actually appear to believe this. There is already some anxious speculation regarding the possible annexation of Alsace-Lorraine, which is considered by some to be a military or naval officer preferred suicide to being delivered up to the allies. On this phase of the treaty the Deutsche Allgemeine Zeitung says:

"It would be unworthy to look sorrowfully backward, and useless to seek scapegoats on whom to cast responsibility for our national misfortune."

With a headline "Under Enemy Scourge," the Lokal Anzeiger says: "Today the masters of the world again have read their verdict. In the name of civilization and justice, the German people is condemned to lifelong hard labor and we have no one to whom to appeal for revision except ourselves."

"German people! May the voices of the returning prisoners tear you out of your trance, until you pull yourselves together again, clench your fist, spit your teeth, bury internal strife, and go to the hardest work ever imposed on a people with logic determination and a faith in a better future."

Conscientiously fulfill it. The National Gazette says of the ratified treaty: "We to its authors if the first day of peace is not the beginning of its revision, softening this murderous pact. We will conscientiously fulfill it to its limits by its old leaders."

The Berlin Gazette says: "Never will the soul of the German nation bow before a treaty which declares robbery to be justice. From this day on begins for us a policy of 'demand-back again' whatever policy the future German Government may be forced to adopt, the German people must with all means practically adopt a policy of demanding back its own."

The Berlin News says: "A state of peace begins, at least officially, but actually no. It will be a strange, ludicrous, yet the utmost tragic state of war in time of peace."

The Pan-German Deutsche Tageszeitung discusses "the first conse-

COURT DISMISSES NEWBERRY DEMURRER

Validity of Indictments Against Michigan Senator and 184 Others in Election Upheld.

By the Associated Press.
 GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., Jan. 12.—Validity of the indictments against Senator Newberry and 184 others, charged with violating the election laws in the 1918 senatorial election, was upheld by Federal Judge Sessions here today in dismissing a demurrer filed by counsel for the indicted men.

Argument on the demurrer were heard last Monday, counsel for the defendants attacking the constitutionality of the general election law, and the application to the case of what is known as the mail fraud section of the United States criminal code.

Congress has the right and power to regulate not only the election but the nomination of its members, the court held. The corrupt practices act also was held to be valid, and the court ruled that any fraud, regardless of the subject matter, whether in an election or in any other activity, which aimed to use the United States mails for its furtherance, comes clearly within the meaning of sections 37 and 215 of the criminal code.

The decision upheld the sufficiency of all six counts in the first indictment, which will be made the basis for the trial scheduled for Jan. 27.

"The question of the power of Congress to enact legislation upon which the first four counts of the indictment are based is the important and controlling issue presented by the demurrer," said Judge Sessions. "The challenge is to the authority of Congress and not to the extent or to the manner of the exercise of its admitted authority. In this respect the present case is quite different from those decisions upon which counsel for the defense placed their chief reliance."

The court then quoted the act of Congress and the act of the Michigan Legislature which were attached in the demurrer and added: "Combining and construing together, as must be done, the Federal and State statutes, it is clear, if they are constitutionally valid, the respondent, Truman H. Newberry, in procuring his nomination and election, could not lawfully give or cause to be given or spent, any sum in excess of $3750, one-half of the annual salary of a member of Congress, and such sum could be expended or used for no other purpose than those enumerated in the statutes of Michigan."

quencies of this peace of shame," while the nationalistic Tagessche Rundschau vents its spleen at President Wilson, saying, "on the day of ratification of the Schiedemann-Erzbischof hunger peace and peace of shame we know how the policy dictated to us by Wilson has ruined us every way."

Even the democratic Tagessche says: "The so-called peace is here, America is not among those present. Whether we can regard this as advantageous, and whether the painful feelings of the allies over America's absence is a cause for rejoicing for us, is doubtful. Germany is now alone with the European members of the Entente in all the commissions and conferences. The presence of Americans may have helped a little, but their absence will be still less useful for us."

Look to Future.
 "Probably the English and French in these commissions will behave brusquely and decisively because they will want to show us they know how to polish us off without America, too. Lamenting for the past is not much use. It is necessary today to look to the future—if one assumes there is still a future for us under this peace."

"To many people it will only now become clear what this peace signifies. The Reparation Committee will set up shop in Berlin, taskmasters will guide and watch our steps and the German people, which has only just captured its right to self-determination, will be dependent on foreign rulers."

"In the distance the picture of the league of nations becomes distorted and the image fades away more and more. It remains the ideal of peace which the best men will strive, but to clutch at this nebulous image alone is no policy."

"Our first duty must be to honorably fulfill conditions we signed and to the best of our ability. Then

COAL OPERATORS QUESTION COMMISSION

Miners to Accept Its Findings, but Owners Reserve Decision Until Answers Are Given.

By the Associated Press.
 WASHINGTON, Jan. 12.—Bituminous coal miners will accept unreservedly any decision made by the President's coal commission in settlement of the coal strike. John L. Lewis, acting president of the United Mine Workers of America, declared at the opening today of the first public hearing of the commission. Lewis added that the miners' representatives would assist the commission's inquiry.

Lewis' assurance was given in answer to a question by Chairman Henry N. Robinson.

Thomas T. Brewster, chairman of the operators' Scale Committee of the central competitive field, replying to the same question, said he could make no promise for the operators until the commission had given answers to 10 questions propounded by the operators. Chairman Robinson said the commission would furnish a statement to the operators.

Among the operators' questions were whether the commission's award would be final and binding on both miners and operators; whether the commission would act upon matters brought up by either side; as to its authority to fix wages up or down; whether it would consider the President's coal commission in settlement of the coal strike. John L. Lewis, acting president of the United Mine Workers of America, declared at the opening today of the first public hearing of the commission. Lewis added that the miners' representatives would assist the commission's inquiry.

"I understand then that you only accept this decision so far as it is the decision of the President," continued the chairman.

"I shouldn't like to answer that without a conference with some of my associates here," Brewster said. "It is wise to be cautious. The Wilson letter of instruction to the committee as outlining its powers fully and assume that its members will do as good a piece of work as the coal operators."

"We assume that," Brewster replied. "Then we'll take the whole list of questions under advisement and make a statement later," Robinson said.

Gifts From U. S. Free of Duty.

we have the duty to leave nothing unemployed which offers a possibility of peacefully attaining a revision of the treaty. There must and can be no other than a peaceful way, but this way we must always and everywhere seek until it is found. It will be found someday, perhaps—not in one day, but piecemeal, step by step. World history does not end on the day the Versailles treaty becomes effective."

Obligation of Honor.
 The Vossische Zeitung says: "This document means peace between two governments, but certainly not peace for the life of nations. All that has been attained is the possibility of beginning work for the conclusion of a real peace between nations. The German nation must put forth its strength, because fulfillment of the engagement entered into is an obligation of honor, and because its work will help again in advancing the interests of civilization and humanity."

The Freiheit speaks of "the peace yoke." It laments the impracticability of the peace as signed and sets its hopes on British workers. Vorwaerts calls for "courage for the peace" and hopes for a revision of the treaty. It summons its readers to "a last desperate struggle" in connection with the plebiscite. Tagessche Rundschau declares its aim will be to remove "this work of peace."

SALOON MAN FREED OF MURDER CHARGE

Case Against Timothy McCarthy in Krallmann Killing Is Nolle Prossed.

The case against Timothy McCarthy, a saloon keeper at 2201 Dickson street, who was indicted on a charge of first-degree murder in connection with the killing of Henry Krallmann, grocer and saloon keeper, of 3072 Marcus avenue, July 25 last, was nolle prossed today by the Circuit Attorney.

Charles Ellis, 27 years old, of 3945 Lindell boulevard, charged with complicity in the Krallmann murder, was found guilty of second degree murder, Dec. 17 last, and was sentenced to 25 years in the penitentiary.

Two other men were indicted in connection with the murder. One was Walter G. Ballman of 4829 Lahad avenue, who, while awaiting trial, shot and killed his brother, Leonard, and himself, in a taxicab on Dec. 31. The other man, John O'Donnell, is still at large.

At his trial Ellis testified that he accompanied the other accused men in an automobile to Krallmann's saloon, 2201 Dickson street, where he got into the automobile with McCarthy and Ballman. McCarthy remained in the automobile, he said, and he and O'Donnell started into the saloon. Near the saloon door, he said, he saw McCarthy and Ballman. McCarthy, he said, was holding a revolver in his hand.

Detectors who investigated the Krallmann murder, commenting upon the disposition of McCarthy's case today, pointed to the fact that Ellis, who has not yet been sent to the penitentiary, is available as a witness in the McCarthy case. McCarthy, they said, confessed to them that he was in the automobile which was driven to Krallmann's saloon. He has said, however, that he was not in the saloon at the time as to leave the machine.

Assistant Circuit Attorney Baer said today that the reason for dismissing the McCarthy case was lack of evidence. The only possible witness whose testimony involved McCarthy, he said, was Walter G. Ballman, who killed himself. Ellis, who was convicted in the same case in December, named O'Donnell, but did not implicate McCarthy.

LONDON DOLEFUL OVER OMISSION OF U. S. IN PEACE

The Telegraph Declares Failure to Ratify Brings Bitter Disappointment to Humanity.

By the Associated Press.
 LONDON, Jan. 12.—Regret that the United States did not participate in ratification of the treaty of Versailles is expressed by today's newspapers. Some editorials strike a doleful note.

"The omission of America's signature to the ratifying document," says the Telegraph, "stands for the bitter disappointment of the hope that glowed with promise for humanity a year ago. It is true the league of nations exists by the terms of the treaty but the world knows that unless and until the United States adheres to the league and participates in its actions not a title of the usefulness and moral authority it should possess will belong to it."

The Telegraph also cites the absence of Russia from Saturday's ceremony and says:

"Until the sky in that direction grows clearer there can be no world peace nor any hope of it."

Reality of Peace Doubtful.
 Doubts of the reality of peace behind the formal act of ratification are expressed by the Daily News.

"There is not a nation which cannot, if it wishes, manufacture new grievances out of the settlement to trouble the peace of the world," it says. "Occasional offenses are so numerous they obscure the very fact of peace."

The news admits the possibility that the present situation may lead to a more real peace, "than to the more loudly heralded millennium."

"Are we near peace?" asked the Graphic. It adds that nobody can answer this question with a hopeful affirmative, and cites the present industrial unrest, the troubled state of India, Egypt and Ireland, and the "Socialist conspiracy to destroy by relentless class warfare the whole existing structure of society."

The Chronicle expresses the hope that allied Governments will immediately go ahead with the league, but questions whether Great Britain, France and Italy, without the support of America, can assume a position to act as dictators to the rest of Europe, adding: "America's concurrence would have made a great moral difference."

Cause for Rejoicing.
 The Manchester Guardian says: "So far there is cause for rejoicing; the supreme and overwhelming need of Europe is for peace."

Characterizing the peace as "the most formal and leaving the door wide open for renewed struggle," the Guardian criticizes the enormous indemnities exacted and the provision for handing over men accused of violation of the laws of war as possible sources of trouble. It continues:

"Happily other forces than those of international jealousy and hate will now be at work. With the peace with Germany the league of nations will be born. It is the duty of the President of the United States to summon the first meeting of the league of nations at a fitting time, and there is no reason to doubt Mr. Wilson will duly perform that task. It is for each of us to bring strength and credit to this new and historic institution, and to bring strength and credit to the international accord. It is the hope of the world."

MISSIONARY, 84, DIES IN CHINA

Dr. Hunter Corbett Had Served in Orient 57 Years.

ATKORA, Ill., Jan. 12.—A cablegram from Chefoo, China, announces the death of Dr. Hunter Corbett, 84 years old, a moderator of the Presbyterian Church of the United States in 1906 and a missionary in China for 57 years. Dr. Corbett did a tremendous work in the Orient, preaching, teaching and caring for the natives. In times of famine thousands were fed through agencies which he created.

Dr. Corbett was graduated from Jefferson College, "Annaburg, Pa., and Princeton University. He was married three times and is survived by a widow and nine children. Six children and Mrs. Corbett are living in China. Dr. Corbett was born in Leatherwood, Pa., Dec. 8, 1835.

AUSTRIA CONSIDERED TO THE POORHOUSE, DECLARES HOOVER

Condition Made 'Perpetual,' He Says, in Indicating Disapproval of Peace Settlement Boundaries.

By the Associated Press.
 WASHINGTON, Jan. 12.—Because of the "enormously improved" conditions overseas, the task of feeding Europe until the next harvest, on Oct. 1, will not be the burden on the American Government that it was last year, the House Ways and Means Committee was told today by Herbert Hoover.

"From the signing of the armistice until last July 1, the provisioning of Europe cost $2,500,000,000," he said. "That was a burden on our Government and the taxpayers. In one form or another, the United States Treasury advanced $2,250,000,000 to feed Europe. But this year Europe will be largely able to feed herself by the exchange of goods, and credits of $150,000,000 to $200,000,000 from the United States. In all, the situation is that of fronting the echo of the situation we had to front last year."

While the $100,000,000 famine fund provided last year is almost exhausted, approximately $85,000,000 will be repaid "within two or three years," Hoover said. He declared $12,000,000 had been spent for "cheer charities" in feeding undernourished children.

All Europe is on rations, Hoover continued, but, with the grain corporation in charge, no new appropriation was necessary. The corporation's $150,000,000 capital is intact and it has profits of $50,000,000.

"Remittance of money to Europe is the height of folly," Hoover said, adding that 3,000,000 American families here were sending money to relatives abroad who could not buy food for the purchase at banks here of food drafts which will be honored by authorities abroad for flour or whatever commodities are specified in addition to the regulation ration.

The business is expected to amount to $5,000,000 a month, he said, adding that no doubt many others were killed of which there was no record.

"The fact that Trotsky, Bela Kun and many of the other prominent men are Jews," he reported, "together with the fact that the Russians have not been accustomed to seeing many Jews in authority furnished a basis for a propaganda to connect Jews more closely with Bolshevism than they should be."

DIPLOMATIC REPRESENTATIVE SENT BY BRITAIN TO BERLIN
 Lord Kilmerock on Way to Resume Relations with German Government to Be Appointed.
 By the Associated Press.
 LONDON, Jan. 12.—Lord Kilmerock left London today to act as British diplomatic representative in Berlin.

His departure marks an important step in the re-establishment in diplomatic relations between Great Britain and Germany which has been deferred almost immediately. Consuls and Consuls-General will be appointed shortly by the two Governments. Germany will be first represented here by a charge d'affaires, but it is believed the rank will soon be raised to that of minister, instead of Ambassador as formerly.

Under Secretary Glass' plan the loan would be advanced by the grain corporation out of the billion dollar wheat guaranty fund, and would be used to establish credits in this country. Some form of securities would be obtained from the borrowing countries.

HIGH POWER ROCKET THAT CAN BE FIRED TO MOON DESIGNED

Method of Exploring Outer Regions of Atmosphere Described by Clark College Professor.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 12.—A method of sending apparatus to the un-reached higher layers of air, to regions beyond the earth's atmosphere, even as far as the moon, is described by Prof. R. H. Goddard of Clark College in a recent publication for the Smithsonian Institution. The apparatus is a multiple charge high efficiency rocket of a new design.

"The great scientific value of Prof. Goddard's experiments," says the announcement, "lies in the possibility of sending recording apparatus to extreme altitudes within the earth's atmosphere. The nature of the higher levels of the air has for a long time been a subject of much speculation. The highest level that has ever been reached with recording instruments is about 19 miles, accomplished with a free balloon. As the earth's atmosphere extends to the poles, there is a great unknown region."

"The balloon with its recording apparatus requires several hours to ascend, drifts horizontally for a considerable time, and may come down at a great distance from its starting point. Thus it may be weeks before the record taken is available. The rocket apparatus would go straight up and come straight down, the whole operation probably consuming less than half an hour."

"The time of ascent of the rocket will be very short, only 6 1/2 minutes being required to carry it up 210 miles, somewhere near the 'outer limit' of the earth's atmosphere. The too rapid descent of the recording instruments could easily be checked by the use of a small parachute."

29,000 UKRAINIAN JEWS SAID TO HAVE BEEN KILLED IN POGROMS

U. S. Officer Says Jewish Leaders Among Bolsheviks Were Used as Bait for Russian Propaganda.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 12.—The number of Jews killed in pogroms in Ukraine up to Sept. 9, 1919, was estimated at 29,000 by Brigadier-General Jadin of the United States army in a report on his tour of inspection of that country last September, transmitted to the Senate today by President Wilson in response to a resolution by Senator Spencer, Republican, Missouri. That officer said he was furnished with exact dates and names of towns for 18,712 of those killed.

"I have no good reason for doubting the 10,712 figures, and I would not be surprised if the 29,000 figure was substantially correct," he said, adding that no doubt many others were killed of which there was no record.

"The fact that Trotsky, Bela Kun and many of the other prominent men are Jews," he reported, "together with the fact that the Russians have not been accustomed to seeing many Jews in authority furnished a basis for a propaganda to connect Jews more closely with Bolshevism than they should be."

DOCTOR'S ARREST ORDERED IN DEATH OF MOTHER-IN-LAW

Warrant Issued for Wisconsin Physician Accused by Brother of Woman of Killing Mrs. Nettie Duffies

By the Associated Press.
 MARSHESAN, Wis., Jan. 12.—A warrant charged Dr. J. A. Freudenberg with murdering Mrs. Nettie Duffies, his mother-in-law, was issued today by District Attorney M. J. Paul at the instance of William Perry, brother of the dead woman. A deputy sheriff is on his way to serve the document.

Mrs. Duffies died Nov. 1 last. A coroner's jury last week charged Dr. Freudenberg with causing her death by injecting a solution of arsenic into her bladder.

District Attorney Paul, it is said, planned to have Freudenberg arraigned before Court Commissioner H. A. Price today.

FRENCH SHIP WHICH REPORTED LEAK SINKS IN BAY OF BISCA

Two Boats of Afrique, Which Carried 258 Passengers and Crew, Reported Picked Up.

By the Associated Press.
 PARIS, Jan. 12.—The French steamer Afrique from Bordeaux to Dakar, sank in the Bay of Biscay this morning, after a struggle to keep afloat since Saturday when she sprang a leak during a storm. The steamer Ceylan picked up two of the Afrique's boats with their occupants. Some rafts with survivors also were seen after the Afrique went down.

It was said at the company's offices that the Afrique had 258 passengers, most of them of French nationality and about 100 in the crew. It was not believed that anyone from the United States or South America was aboard.

The company interpreted the messages it had received to mean that the steamer had a minor accident requiring her to be towed and later struck a reef while being conveyed.

HAUL OF ROBBERS FROM FIVE SAFES AMOUNTS TO $1700

Six Business Houses Entered Police Collect Abandoned Sledge Hammers, Chisels and "Pinch Bars."

$450 IN PAY MONEY
TAKEN AT ONE PLACE.

Engine Indicators, Car Tokens, Silk Hosiery, Shoes and Eyeglasses Among Loot of Burglars.

Six business establishments were visited by safe robbers yesterday and last night, and five safes were opened. Money taken from the safes and goods carried away, amounted to about $1700. Tools left behind by the robbers, and now at police headquarters, include two sledge hammers, a half dozen chisels, three "pinch-bars" and three screw-drivers.

In the office of the John Ramming Machine Works, 308 South
First street, burglars pried open a desk, in which they found the combination of the safe. An inner door was broken open and the pay money of the concern, $450, was taken. It was in envelopes, ready for distribution today. The thieves carried away two engine indicators, valued at $250, from the machine shop.

At the J. Harvey Cranfill Manufacturing Co., 1615 North Seventh street, the combination was knocked off the safe, and $25.50 was taken from the cash box.

A $50 Liberty Bond and $220, mostly in small coins, were taken from the safe of George Mareschal,
a news dealer, 3332 Olive street.
The combination was removed from the safe with a chisel. This robbery and that at the Cranfill place were discussed until the morning.

A small safe was robbed in the office of the Fisher & Davis Manufacturing Co., 934 North Main street, and an attempt was made to open a larger safe. The thieves obtained

Heavy steel bars on the windows of the Ansted Shoe Co., 1226 South Broadway, were forced apart by burglars who made a heavy safe from the front to the rear of the place. They used a sledge hammer, "pinch bar" and two chisels in trying to open the safe. Falling in this, the thieves carried away $25.50 in cash tokens, from the cash register, and about $500 worth of silk hosiery and several pairs of shoes.

At the John P. Funk & Co. package, 1024 North 12th street, burglars worked several hours opening one safe 4 by 5 feet, and tried to knock off the combinations on two others, but failed. From the small safe they obtained nothing but a pair of eyeglasses.

GIRL FINED $10 FOR WORKING IN MALE ATTIRE AS BUS BOY
Ellen Valley, who "Seeks Matrimonial for Book Given Until 6 P. M. to Leave Town."

Ellen Valley, 21 years old, of Youngstown, O., who was arrested last night at a restaurant at Sixth and Market streets, where she was working in male attire as a busboy, was fined $10 in police court today and given until 6 p. m. to get out of town.

A girl said she adopted male attire so that she could beat her way over the country on trains, gathering information for a book on woman suffrage which she intends to write. She has been on the road four months.

In court she said she wanted to go home and the judge gave her until 6 o'clock to start in that direction. A collection of $19.40 was taken up for her about the same time. In this part of the State a number of cases are reported.

Health authorities are at a loss to know just what the plague is or the mode of treatment. The disease is in some quarters that immunization is the cause. Officials say the disease is not likely to proceed except to persons of low vitality.

of an epidemic of what is believed to be a form of dysentery.
More than 500 cases of the disease are reported here alone, while in Oklahoma, Avant and other small towns in this part of the State a number of cases are reported.

MURDER SUES FOR $500,000
Associated Press.
NEW YORK, Jan. 12.—Murder
for "Christmas" Keough, a noted fighter, and arrested at St. Louis, Jan. 3, 1917, for alleged forgery upon a complaint of three firms of New York, A. P. McCauley of Chicago today brought suit for $500,- 000 against the jewellers on the charge of false arrest.

Keough was arrested in Altoona, Pa., on a charge of committing the crime for which McCauley was arrested. Keough now is serving a term in the Illinois State Prison.

"Professor X" Who Has Been Identified as Long-Missing Man

DR. JOHN L. BRAND.

SERVANT SAYS MAN IS DESTITUTE; HE DENIES IT WIFE OVERCOME WHEN 'PROFESSOR X' IS FOUND

Police Called to Home of W. M.
Carpenter—He Declares He Wants to Be Let Alone.

In response to a telephone message that there was a "destitute case" at 4485 Forest Park boulevard, policemen went there last night and found it was the home of Wilbur M. Carpenter, 79 years old, former proprietor of the Bryant & Stratton Business College, which has not been in operation for several years.

They were met by Hattie Bell of 3322 Market street, rear, who told them Carpenter was in need of food and should be cared for. Carpenter denied that he needed aid and refused to give the policemen the names of relatives.

When a Post-Dispatch reporter called at the flat this morning the door was opened by the negro servant, who said: "Carpenter is in need. He has nothing to eat, but he won't accept anything."

She said she had been Carpenter's servant for 35 years, but had received no pay from him in the last 15 years. Recently, she said, she had been compelled to work, elsewhere to earn a living, but she has called at Carpenter's home every morning to make fires and do housework.

"Somebody ought to do something for him," she said. "He sure needs something to eat."

Carpenter later received the reporter. He shows evidences of his advanced age and apparently at some time has suffered a stroke of partial paralysis.

"I want people to let me alone," he said. "I don't need anything. But people are just prying into my affairs to find out how much money I have got. I am not in distress. I once had as much as $150,000."

He said he was married to a woman and McKnight roads, in the county, but I sold it five or six years ago. I was boarding here with Miss Emma Wheeler, but she died New Year's eve. I had boarded with her mother before her, but she also is dead. They formerly lived at 4028 Washington avenue. There was no occasion for a report that I was destitute. I am all right and I wish folks would let me alone."

"MOVIE" MEN FOILED IN EFFORT TO GET PICTURES OF WILSON
Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 12.—Attempts of enterprising motion picture camera men to obtain photographs of President Wilson by using a fine home at the Clayton Hotel, which resulted in pictures of William Hohenzollern, former Emperor, reaching the world,
were frustrated today by White House secret service officers.

The camera men concealed themselves in a wagonload of hay which was driven slowly by the White House while the President was on the lawn in his wheel chair. Before they could get their cameras into action, however, the secret service men stopped the wagon and investigated. After the photographers had convinced the officers that they had not had time to make pictures
they were allowed to go.

Mrs. Annie E. Brand Is With Their Married Daughter at Fort Leavenworth, Kan.

By the Associated Press.
LEAVENWORTH, Kan., Jan. 12.—
Mrs. Annie E. Brand, wife of Dr.
John L. Brand, of "Professor X," as he calls himself, the 64-year-old victim of a lagoon of memory, was overcome Saturday when told that he had been identified as her husband at Lambertville, N. J., by her son, Lieutenant-Commander Charles Brand of the Philadelphia navy yard.

An announcement by Mrs. Archbald H. Sunderland, Mrs. Brand's daughter, and wife of an army officer at Fort Leavenworth, said there is no doubt either in her mind, or her mother's, that "Professor X" is her missing Dr. Brand for whom a nation-wide search had been made since his mysterious disappearance from the family home at Boston in March, 1916.

According to Mrs. Sunderland, beyond a letter postmarked Boston and received two days after her father's disappearance, nothing definite had ever been heard from him.
Repeatedly persons were found who were said to answer his description, but always until this time they proved not to be Dr. Brand.

Mrs. Sunderland said that her father had suffered no illness, and was apparently normal in every respect.

Both Dr. Brand and his wife were born and educated in England, coming to America soon after their marriage more than 20 years ago.

No plans have yet been made for a trip to Lambertville, either by herself or her mother, Mrs. Sunderland said.

FIRST DEPORTATION HEARINGS
FROM ARRESTS JAN. 1 BEGUN

Two East St. Louis Men Charged With Subscribing to Doctrines of Communist Party.

The first deportation hearings resulting from about 50 arrests of alleged radicals by Government agents Jan. 1 were begun today before Immigration Commissioner
Dunn. The defendants are Andre Fedich and Mita Vlach, of East St. Louis. They are charged with subscribing to the doctrines of the Communist party.

Nine more hearings of men arrested in recent round-ups of foreigners are scheduled for tomorrow.
The hearings are secret and the findings of the Commissioner are forwarded to the Secretary of Labor in Washington.

BURNS CAUSE MAN'S DEATH
Huckster Dies of Injuries Suffered in Fall Against Stove.

William Margolf, 26 years old, of 2127 South Seventh street, a huckster, died at the city hospital at 8 a.
m. today from burns suffered Wednesday when he fell against a stove while making some purchases
in the office of the Payne Commission Co., 309 Morgan street.

The huckster was carrying a box over his shoulder when he was over, throwing coals on Margolf's burned on the back and neck.

MISS HALLEN RAILED, ATTORNEY TESTIFIES

Nerve Specialist Says She Is Fidgety and Incapacitated for Work.

Counsel for Miss Hildgarde Hallen at noon today concluded the presentation of their direct testimony in her $50,000 suit against Chief of Detectives James H.
Smith and John S. Leahy, an attorney, for false arrest and imprisonment in 1909 growing out of the Dwight M. Fortner forgery case.
This was the seventh day of the hearing in the Circuit Court here.

The last witness for Miss Hallen was Dr. Francis M. Barnes, a nerve specialist, who testified that he examined her last week and found her suffering from a nervous disorder marked by irritability weakness.
She had traumatic neurosthenia, he said, and was pale, anemic and fidgety.
In his opinion, she is incapacitated for work and her ailment is incurable.

Description of Symptoms.
Asked to describe the symptoms of traumatic neurosthenia, Dr.
Barnes said they were pains in the neck and back, insomnia, impairment of digestive organs, poor appetite, heart and blood vessels affected, causing the face to flush;
unusual pallor associated with coldness of the extremities, feeling of anxiety and fear, heart weakness and inability to continue long at anything, increased irritability on the part of the nervous system which responds in exaggerated form to stimulation, fainting spells, falling out of finger nails and hair, loss in weight, impoverished condition of the blood, disturbances of the various senses, and impairment of the muscular movements which are noticed particularly about the face and eyes.

The witness said that possibly he had omitted some of the symptoms
but that he had mentioned all that he could recall at the time. He said that he believed the first arrest of Miss Hallen had contributed more to her ill health than had the second.
Philip B. Chaney of East St. Louis,
formerly attorney for the St. Louis Credit Men's Association, testified that Miss Hallen was employed in his office in 1910 or 1911, after her arrest, and that she was so nervous
she could not work steadily. He said that in the month she remained there she would "get rattled" and frequently remained away and reported herself ill.

Demurrers Interposed.
At the close of the plaintiff's case
the defendants interposed demurrers on the ground that Miss Hallen had failed to make out a case. The de-murrers were argued in the absence of the jury.

Leahy contended that he should not have been named as a defendant in this suit, as it was based on the second arrest of Miss Hallen, and that he had nothing to do with that arrest.

Smith's contention was that he acted only in his capacity as an officer of the law, and that he had a right to enter Miss Hallen's home and arrest her for the crime of forgery, which she was alleged to have committed.

Judge Hartmann, in announcing that he would take the demurrers
under advisement, until tomorrow morning, said that he was inclined to dismiss the second count of the petition as to Leahy on the ground that Leahy was improperly joined with Smith as a defendant.

COMMITTEEMAN "HAS NOTION" DEMOCRATS WILL RUN HOOVER

"If He Has Fortieth Cousin Who Is Democrat, He'll Be Man," Says
Gen. W. B. Haldemann.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 12.—Gen. W.
B. Haldemann, Democratic National Committeeman from Kent-Jay, was here yesterday on his way from Washington to his winter home at Naples.

"My notion is," he said in an interview, "that if it can be found that Herbert Hoover has at least a fortieth cousin who is a Democrat he will be the man who will be selected to be the Democratic nominee for President by the members of the party
when they meet in national convention at San Francisco."

"Every well-informed person knows that Mr. Hoover is a man of very great executive ability. He proved that fact to the satisfaction of all. It is true that he seems to know at this time just how much Democratic blood courses through his veins, but the test will soon be made, according to my opinion, and if it is found that he measures up to a sufficient degree it is pretty certain that he will be the one selected to be the standard bearer of the Democrats in the coming national campaign."

SHOTS THROUGH CEILING KILL
By the Associated Press.
TEXARKANA, Ark., Jan. 12.—
After shooting and killing E. J.
Grimes, a negro, Henry Wilson, insane negro, yesterday barricaded himself in the attic of a farmhouse five miles from this city and held the sheriff and deputies bay until today. The sheriff then came in for more ammunition and dynamite.

Returning with dynamite to the farmhouse shortly before noon, the sheriff called to the negro by using a rifle. He first replied in the negative, then in the affirmative, but opened fire when officers entered the house. While in the room below the office, the negro was seen when he answered a question and fired a fusilade through the ceiling, killing the negro.

HOFMANN ADMITS THAT 'DVORSKY' IS PEN NAME

Virtuoso Says He Wanted Public's Unbiased Opinion of His Compositions.

A mystery which has interested
St. Louis music lovers since Josef Hofmann's piano recital at the Odeon on Dec. 6 was cleared up today, according to advices from New York, by the virtuoso's confession, after Chicago years of denial, that he and "Michel Dvorsky," the composer, are one and the same person.

His explanation of the artifice is that he chose to introduce his compositions under a pen-name in order that he might get the unbiased opinion of the public, without trading upon his renown as a performer.

"While the composer is primarily guided by his innate musical impulse," said Hofmann, "he nevertheless must learn to hear his own works with the ear of his auditors. This is of great value in his artistic development." The pianist added that he intended to retain the nom-de-plume for his further compositions.

A detailed fable was invented by Hofmann to account for "Dvorsky," of whom no one had ever heard until the famous Poles began playing his works about the country. According to the pianist, Dvorsky was born in 1880 at Pan, in the Midwest of Poland, and was of mixed Polish and French parentage.

On account of poverty, he was compelled to leave his native land and to self-train, save for a few lessons in piano playing and composition from one Gustave Grainer, in Paris. It was further stated that, because of ill health, Dvorsky was living in retirement in the Spanish watering place, San Sebastian.

This information was supplied for the program books of the Cincinnati and Chicago Symphony Orchestras,
when Hofmann played Dvorsky's Symphonic Dialogue, "Chromaticism," for pianoforte and orchestra,
with these organizations, on Nov.
24, 1916, and Jan. 11, 1918, respectively.

At his St. Louis recital, Hofmann offered three piano pieces by "Dvorsky," under the titles of "The Penguin," "East and West" and "The Sanctuary." They were of a very scenic and modernist character, and were favorably received by the audience. The occasion was taken to quizz the pianist concerning the identity of the enigmatic "Dvorsky."
The pianist smilingly declined to commit himself, beyond declaring that "if I have not made up my mind that 'Dvorsky' and I are in constant communication."

Good Health Within Easy Reach

Vigorous Health Only as Far Away as the Use of Pepto-Mangan

Creates Rich, Red Blood

Pepto-Mangan Obtainable in Liquid or Tablets—Insist on "Gude's," the Genuine

There is really no reason why men or women with thin, watery blood and consequent poor health should remain in that unfortunate condition. Thin, nervous, run-down, tired people never get much happiness out of life.

Men and women with the bloom of health in their cheeks, a cheerful, sunny disposition and an attractive personality are the folks who get most of life's enjoyment, pleasure, and success.

Gude's Pepto-Mangan furnishes thin, watery blood with the necessary nourishment to enrich it, enabling it to supply energy, vitality and strength to every part of the body. Physicians recommend Gude's Pepto-Mangan to patients suffering from anemia because its beneficial and lasting qualities are well known to the medical profession.

Gude's Pepto-Mangan is obtainable in either liquid or tablet form. Both forms contain exactly the same strength and medicinal properties. When you buy Pepto-Mangan of your druggist, be sure the name "Gude's" is on the package. Without "Gude's" it is not Pepto-Mangan.

REED IN ST. LOUIS FOR ANTI-LEAGUE DINNER TONIGHT

Senator Says President's Permission Is All That Is Necessary to Open Trade With Germany.

FAVORS PASSAGE OF KNOX RESOLUTION

Declares Failure to Approve Treaty Has Nothing to Do With Unrest; Calls People Loyal.

Senator James A. Reed, on his way back to Washington from Pasadena, Cal., where he has been resting a month, stopped over in St. Louis today to be the guest of a group of Republican and Democratic opponents of the league of nations at a dinner tonight at the Planters Hotel.

The Senator refused to discuss the dissatisfaction of Dr. John H. Simon, president of the St. Louis branch of the League for the Preservation of American Independence, who in an interview several days ago said the honor of entertaining Reed had been snatched from him and his associates, and that he would have nothing to do with the dinner.

"It is an unusual situation," the Senator said. "Two bodies of gentlemen vying with each other to entertain me. It has not been so very long ago when I attempted to speak in St. Louis and was branded as an anarchist and even refused a hall to speak in (the reference to the time he made his first campaign for the nomination for Senator.) They are all my friends, and I won't talk about them."

"The claims that the United States must make peace in order to restore business conditions and the parallel claim that this country will be left at some terrible disadvantage and put in a humiliating condition if we do not sign up, and have to make a separate peace with Germany are must unsubstantial and groundless."

"There never has been a moment since the armistice or before when Germany would not have been delighted beyond words to have all the goods would ship her. Food and other provisions have been sent to Germany through Mr. Hoover's organization. The idea that we can't trade with Germany when we can give goods to her is an absurdity which could be argued only by a league of nations man."

The Knox Resolution. "All that is necessary is for the President, through the boards established, to give permission to trade with Germany. Such permission was granted in a qualified way several months ago, and goods have been shipped to Germany with the full consent of our Government."

"The Knox resolution ratifies the treaty in so far as it makes peace between us and Germany. If passed, it would end the matter. It ought to be passed, but if it is not, we could make peace at once because Germany desires peace, wants our trade, and we get nothing by the treaty in the way of indemnities, except the trifling matter of some ships. I venture to assert that the men at Washington, including President Wilson, know this."

Observations in West. Saying that he had found sentiment in California crystallizing against the league of nations, he continued:

"The idea that failure to conclude peace has anything to do with disturbed local conditions is absurd. The best way to get rid of the unrest is to stop the nonsense in legislation and speculation, get out of the clouds, quit seeing visions and get down to practical things. Whatever was done to the Constitution during the war, it has been fully restored in all of its vigor."

The Senator urged prosecution in the courts of violators of the law, whether the violators be "great or small."

Reference to Unrest. "More than 200 out of every 1000 people in this country are for law and order and decency, and only a few half-insane, criminal individuals are responsible for the violence. I do not mean that the situation should be trifled with or neglected, but we need not get excited. Our country is all right, the people are all right. They are the same people who defended the flag gave, their sons worked their fingers to the blood knitting socks for the soldiers."

Among those chiefly interested in arranging the dinner tonight are Henry S. Priest, Sam Lazarus, Harry B. Hawes, Lee Meriwether and a group of Federal office holders, most of whom owe their appointments to Reed. Gov. Gardner and Joseph W. Folk, who were invited found it impossible to attend.

5000 QUARTS OF WHISKY SEIZED
Stock, valued at $75,000, was being hauled by truck.

By the Associated Press. WILMINGTON, Del., Jan. 12.—Five thousand quarts of whisky, valued at $75,000 and said to be consigned to New York from Baltimore by motor truck, were seized Saturday night under a law prohibiting transportation through the State of intoxicating liquors in excess of one quart at a time. The truck driver was held. Some of the whisky, liquor dealers say, is worth $20 a quart.

Turks Propose Judiciary Reforms. By the Associated Press. CONSTANTINOPLE, Jan. 12.—The Sublime Porte will send to the allied Powers soon a memorandum outlining proposed reforms regarded as needed in Turkey and recognizing the necessity for co-operation by experts of foreign countries. Extensive judiciary reforms are included in the proposals.

HOLLY W. WILDER, BANDMASTER OF FIRST REGIMENT, DIES

Was Formerly Cornet Soloist With Gilmore's, Victor Herbert's and Sousa's Bands.

Holly Wilson Wilder, 49 years old, bandmaster of the First Regiment, National Guard of Missouri, and formerly cornet soloist with Gilmore's, Innes', Victor Herbert's and Sousa's bands, died yesterday of nephritis at his home, 4067 Cleveland avenue. The funeral will probably be held tomorrow afternoon.

Wilder learned to play the cornet in boyhood, and became a member of Gilmore's Band at the age of 12, after he won a contest in Syracuse, N. Y. He grew up with the Gilmore organization, remaining with it until the leader's death in 1892. He toured Europe with Sousa's Band several years later. A few years ago, as a result of illness, he gave up concert work, and was since employed in St. Louis music stores. He was bandmaster for the Third Regiment, Missouri Home Guard, during the war and later took the leadership of the band of the reorganized First Regiment, National Guard. He is survived by his wife, formerly Miss Clara Pfeiffer, and a son, Victor Herbert Wilder, 15, a McKinley High School student. His mother and her brother live in Watertown, N. Y.

Furs Reduced

ONE of the best buying opportunities of the season is presented in the clearing of Furs. Furs have been accorded extraordinary popularity.
Those who have felt limited in buying furs up to this time, will find many of our handsomest pieces offered at prices that may be taken advantage of in this sale. A detailed list would be impossible here, but we include fur coats, fur scarfs, sets, men's fur overcoats, motor robes and children's furs. The Fur Salon is well known for the fine quality of its merchandise and a clearing sale will be noted with interest.
(Third Floor)

Dresses Reduced

IN the Costume Salon the clearing sale is going forward with great interest as there are four different price groups—each are offering interesting values.
Dresses of charmeuse, Geor-
gettes, satins and meters
at $29
Dresses, meters, crepe Elizabeth, crepe de chine and Dinner Dresses of tulle and laces, priced at $39
Dresses of tricolettes, beaded chiffons, duvetyns, meters, satins and Paulettes, priced
at $59
A lot of Dresses for street, afternoon and evening wear—mostly one of a kind—reduced to $88.75 to $150.
(Third Floor)

Suits Enter the Clearing Sale With Lower Prices $39 to $97.50

IMPORTANT among clearing sale entries are finely taiored Suits that always form the smart costume for daytime. We do not often claim "extraordinary" as the word to describe a sale. But in this clearing sale the values are extraordinary, as the materials, trimmings and workmanship all place these Suits in distinctive positions. Those at $97.50 are of very finest model suits. The other groups are priced $39, $49, $59, $69 and $79.
(Third Floor)

A Sale of Importance

Knox Blouses for $6.75

A REMARKABLE selling of Blouses—these are Knox-made Blouses—Blouses whose fine workmanship gives them high prestige. They are beautifully designed and the materials are of the very finest qualities.

This sale is a feature event of the great January White Sale. The Blouses were purchased specially and are marked very low.

The materials are crepe de chine and Georgette crepe, in white, flesh, gray, navy, brown and black. Fine tucks and the daintiest embroidery are the trimmings. The tailored styles are decidedly smart, and the semi-tailored styles are to be had in the greatest variety.

Knox Blouses are seldom marked at such a special price, and we feel that this offering is one of unusual interest. You will need new Blouses this Spring —you may find them higher in price later. An early sale of this kind offers the very best opportunity to buy several Blouses at a remarkable saving in price.
(Third Floor)

Snug and Warm Are the Coats in the Clearing Sale $29 to $59

WHEN winter gets a firm grip on things—cold weather is promised for several months—warm topcoats come under the head of "essentials" and clearing sale prices urge the wisdom of buying at once. The choice of material includes tinseltone, wool velour, Bolivia and kersey and fur fabric. Some of the coats have fur collars—and every one knows how well liked fur is. The groups are decidedly interesting and range in price from $29 to $59.
(Third Floor)

An Event of Special Interest—

These are samples—therefore the variety of styles is exceptionally large. There are slip-on models, coat Sweaters and Tuxedo front Sweaters. They are of Shetland zephyr and fiber, knitted in plain or fancy stitches. Some have the ripple bottoms. There are sashes, belts, pockets and effective collars for trimming.

Solid colors, two-tone and combination colors are in this group. Sizes 36 to 44. But one or two of a kind. Special at $5.75.

9 ON DEMOCRATIC CITY COMMITTEE ON STATE PAYROLL

More St. Louisans Appointed by Gov. Gardner Since Mention of His Name for Senator.

WORK IN BRANCHES OF STATE DEPARTMENTS

Salaries Range From $125 a Month to $2000 a Year — Kansas City "Takes Care of Its Own."

By a Staff Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch.

JEFFERSON City, Jan. 12.—That the office of city committee-man for a political party frequently carries with it more substantial recognition than a mere voice in shaping party destiny was shown by the publication in the Post-Dispatch of the names of Republican committee-men in St. Louis who are holding remunerative jobs at the hands of the Republican city administration.

That this practice is not confined to the Republican party, however, is revealed by an examination of the payrolls at the State capital, where the Democrats are in charge of the appointing power.

Nine St. Louis City Democratic Committee-men and four from Kansas City are in the pay of the State. Democratic city committee-men in St. Louis and Kansas City had fared well on the State salary list until Gov. Gardner began to be seriously mentioned as a probable candidate for the United States Senate. Since then they have fared better. Among the St. Louis committee-men who have places of honor and material recognition on the State payroll are J. J. Fitzsimmons, secretary of the Democratic City Committee, who draws $137.50 per month as a clerk in the Warehouse Department branch office in St. Louis.

$2000 a Year and Expenses. George W. Hobbs, committee-man from the Twenty-third Ward, draws $2000 and expenses a year from the Banking Department.

E. B. Alexander, committee-man from the Twenty-fifth Ward, draws $4 a day and expenses as a Deputy Game Warden.

John Seufert, committee-man from the Fourteenth Ward, draws $157.50 a month as a State Factory Inspector.

William Kaiser, committee-man from the Ninth Ward, holds a job in the Food and Drug Department which pays $150 a month; Thomas J. Butler, committee-man from the Nineteenth Ward, draws a similar salary from the same department, and J. H. Whitmore, committee-man from the Twenty-fourth Ward, has been favored in the same manner.

The appointments in the Food and Drug Department were made last fall.

Henry Streuter, committee-man from the Tenth Ward, is on the payroll in the Warehouse Department at $125 a month, and John Brogan, brother of State Senator Joe Brogan, is a clerk in the St. Louis office of the Secretary of State.

Kansas City Appointments. The number of city committee-men in Kansas City on the State payroll is smaller, because the city administration is Democratic and "takes care of its own."

However, Ed S. Casey, brother of Senator Mike Casey, and committee-man in the First Ward, holds a clerkship in the Building and Loan Department at a salary of $150 per month. Grover C. Joyce, also committee-man in the First Ward, draws $240 and a liberal expense account as Supervisor of Corporations in the State Department. George Kopp, committee-man from the Third Ward, is on the payroll in the Highway Department at $150 a month and John Donnelly, committee-man in the Sixth Ward, is in the Warehouse Department at $135 per month.

WOMAN SAYS SHE DESERTED HUSBAND AND 3 DAUGHTERS

Mrs. Loretta Huss, 29 years old, who says she deserted her husband and three daughters in Owosso, Mich., and Miss Mathilda De-Boule, 28, who says her home is in Hannibal, Mo., were arrested with Fay Stillman, 28, married, and Claud Smith, 28, married, both of Owosso, when police raided a rooming house at 2107 Washington avenue at 2 p. m. yesterday.

Mrs. Huss told the police she and Smith and Stillman left Owosso together early in December and came to St. Louis. She said she met the De-Boule woman, who joined the party. She said she paid half the railroad fare for herself and Smith and he paid the rest. She said she could not get along with her husband and left him for that reason. Her children, she said, were girls, 9, 7 and 5 years old.

They were held for the Government authorities for investigation under the Mann act.

Greek Commercial Treaty Expires. By the Associated Press.

ATHENS, Jan. 12.—The Greco-American commercial treaty will be denounced tomorrow, as has been done already with such treaties with other nations. Negotiations then will be taken up to conclude new treaties with the Government in question.

QUICK RELIEF FROM CONSTIPATION

Get Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

That is the joyful cry of thousands since Dr. Edwards produced Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel. Dr. Edwards, a practicing physician for 17 years and calomel's old-time enemy, discovered the formula for Olive Tablets while treating patients for chronic constipation and torpid livers. Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do not contain calomel, but a healing, soothing vegetable laxative.

No griping is the "keynote" of these little sugar-coated, olive-colored tablets. They cause the bowels and liver to act normally. They never force them to unnatural action.

If you have a "dark brown mouth"—bad breath—a dull, tired feeling—sick headache—torpid liver—constipation—you'll find quick, sure and pleasant results from one or two of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets at bedtime.

Thousands take them every night just to keep right. Try them. 10c and 25c.

UNION ELECTRIC PROTECTS ITS INVESTORS

No owner of Union Electric preferred stock need pay a broker a commission for selling it. Union Electric's Securities Department will offer it for resale, at any time, at its true value, and at no expense to the stockholder.

Newspaper market page quotations purporting to show that Union Electric preferred is on the market at 95 "bid" and 100 or 101 "asked" are incorrect and misleading. This stock is sold nowhere but in Union Electric's offices. It is sold to none but Union Electric's customers and members of their families. Its price is $100 a share for cash, $102 a share on a ten-payment plan, under which the buyer draws 5 per cent interest on installment payments. The price is the same to all buyers, whether they take one share or a thousand.

Union Electric, selling its stock directly to its customers in this way, gets new capital for State-approved plant extensions at low cost, and enables thousands of its customers to enjoy the 7 per cent dividends earned by the new capital investment. The owners of Union Electric's common stock are content with a moderate yearly dividend, taken AFTER our customer-stockholders have got their 7 per cent dividends on the preferred stock.

Union Electric's yearly dividend earnings, for preferred and common stock, are at the rate of FIVE TIMES the $210,000 a year needed to pay 7 per cent dividends on $3,000,000 of preferred stock, which includes this $1,000,000 issue now on sale. Every dollar of Union Electric's outstanding bonds, notes and stocks has more than a dollar's worth of income-producing property back of it. The business is growing rapidly. It is as solid and permanent as the Greater St. Louis industrial district for which it supplies electric light, heat and power.

Union Electric preferred is, therefore, a thoroughly safe income security. The free service of our Securities Department, bringing buyer and seller together, makes it easily marketable at its true value. IF YOUR SAVINGS AVAILABLE FOR INVESTMENT ARE EARNING LESS THAN 7 PER CENT, you cannot do better than to put them into shares of this stock. If you own securities which are not earning anything, it would pay you to sell them and put the money into this safe and sure 7 per cent dividend-payer.

BRYAN 'COME BACK' AT JACKSON DINNER CALLED A FAILURE

Three Principal Actors at Democratic Feast in 1912
Again Found in Recent
One, but Roles Are Different.

NEBRASKAN TWICE
HITS DUMB CHORD
Advocacy of Treaty Compromise and Laudation of Dry Amendment Fails to Arouse Politicians.

By the Washington Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 12.—It was at the Jackson day dinner eight years ago that the presidential boom for Woodrow Wilson, then Governor of New Jersey, became formidable by reason of a speech that he made. Champ Clark continued to be the leading candidate in number of delegates pledged, but Wilson from the moment was a rival to be reckoned with. In the last act of the stirring political drama of that year, Bryan, at Baltimore, defeated Clark and made Wilson the nominee.

Much water has run over the political wheel since 1912, yet the Jackson day dinner of 1920 found the same three principal actors again in leading roles. The actors were the same, but vastly different were the roles. Clark is seen in a part sharply contrasting with that of the confident candidate of eight years ago. He is a seer of Democratic politics, an important man in the party, but not a "man of destiny." Wilson has emerged as the leader, actual and titular, of his party, and Bryan, who did much to make him, now challenges his leadership.

The clash of opinion between the two is the most engrossing topic under discussion at the capitol. Will Bryan succeed in displacing Wilson as the guiding force of the party? Not if the relative applause given the proposals at the dinner is any criterion. It was a Wilson dinner at which the prestige of the man in the White House, dimmed though it may have been by recent developments, as much overshadowed Bryan as the large oil portrait of the president in the banquet hall overshadowed the small steel engraving of the man for which the day was named.

Not a Chance for Bryan. From the moment that the commoner wiped the smiles from the faces of the diners with his plan for compromise on the peace treaty, a plan diametrically opposed to the policy previously outlined in the Wilson letter, there was never a chance that the silver-tongued orator of yore would "Bryanize" the gathering. Perhaps the reaction would have been different at a mixed assembly—like the Chautauque crowd, for instance—but this was a meeting of hard-headed politicians, whose fates in party success. They were Wilson followers, the great majority of the committee to the President for sentimental or practical reasons, and they were not to be swept off their feet by any appeal, however impassioned, by a man tagged with the title of "three-time loser."

Moreover, the Bryan appeal for compromise came at the wrong psychological moment. The crowd had been thrilled by the defiant tone of the President's letter; it had cheered the mention of Wilson's name by other speakers. It had in mind the resolutions adopted in the afternoon by the Democratic National Committee, aligning the party behind the President, and the oft-repeated recital of the achievements of the administration—the winning of the war, passage of the income tax law, currency reform, upbuilding of the merchant marine, and so on.

—under the leadership of Wilson, it knew that Wilson's health had been broken by his fight for a world settlement according to his ideals. To ask that crowd to compromise with the Republican Senators was like tossing it milk soup when it wanted raw, red beefsteak.

Talk of Dead Treaty. It is being said in Washington that the treaty is now absolutely dead, that Wilson's letter delivered the finishing stroke. Possibly this is true. There is ground for almost any view that one may take of the treaty situation. The moves in the senatorial game of "pass the buck" have been so many and so bewildering as at times to surprise even the players themselves, as the "bitter-enders" were surprised when fortune played into their hands at the end of the last session.

The treaty may be dead, unless revived by popular demand at the next election; but there is still hope that a compromise will be reached. The President's letter, some observers hold, has not completely closed the door to compromise. It has undoubtedly put an end to various individual, irresponsible efforts at compromise. Whatever settlement may be effected must have the advance O. K. of the President. To this degree the chances of a compromise are diminished, but because of the known desire of many on both sides to keep the issue out of the election, they are not wholly destroyed.

As Bryan did not strike a popular chord when he opposed Wilson, neither did he do so on the subject of prohibition. When the crowd failed to respond to his laudation of the dry amendment, the Nebraskan shed his geniality and became a scold. He spoke sourly, warning audience that on that score he would appeal from Philip Drunk to Philip Sober—meaning, he explained, to the mass of the people. Of course, Mr. Bryan's remark was purest metaphor; the dinner had none but oratorical sparkles. Bryan may yet "come back." He certainly did not progress far, however, either as candidate or candidate-maker, at the dinner.

Whose Word Is Better Than Your Druggist's?

Physicians, Dentists and Nurses Rely on Him—Isn't That a Sufficient Reason for Public Confidence?

There are many good reasons for the confidence the public repose in their druggist. First, he is educated to know by four years of College and Practical training. Second, ethical physicians everywhere rely implicitly on his skill—they trust him. This faith, of course, originates and is maintained by the professional service rendered by the druggist in filling prescriptions. Everyone admits this confidence when offering a prescription to a druggist.

Very few men can be honest in one department of their business, and dishonest in the other. Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde exist very little in real life. If you trust your druggist to fill your prescription, therefore in all fairness, you must accept his word against the word of unknown and far distant manufacturers.

To recommend an article, the druggist must, of course, know what it contains and how it is made, and this was one reason for the formation of a co-operative national association of druggists and physicians who prepare a complete line of household remedies and toilet goods. This association is the American Druggists' Syndicate, popularly called A.D.S., which boasts a membership of 28,000 druggists and physicians, the largest of its kind in the world. For 10 years these professional men met annually for conference in order to obtain the best formula for its products. The combined skill and experience of its members could produce strictly ethical. The ingredients in all A. D. S. preparations conform to the standard advocated by the Government, and cannot be excelled in quality. As the association is strictly co-operative, its merchandise is sold at the very lowest price possible for the quality.

In St. Louis there are 367 druggists who will tell you that A.D.S. holds Remedies, like Milk of Magnesia, Aspirin, Digestive Tablets, Dento Tooth Paste, etc., are the best that they can find in all markets. These 367 druggists stand squarely behind every A.D.S. product with an unqualified guarantee and a hearty endorsement. Such a recommendation is the greatest that can be made, based on the scientific knowledge of tens of thousands of experts and filled by a man you know well and must trust implicitly—your druggist. Whenever you need a household remedy or toilet article, ask your A.D.S. druggist to recommend one to you. All A.D.S. Druggists identify themselves with prominent window counter displays. Ask one about A.D.S. products. If you would like him to fill your prescription, it's only fair to take his word about the merchandise he sells.

BALTIMORE GIRL TO WED ALDEN KIMBALL

Engagement of Miss Anne Randolph to St. Louisan Made Known—Marriage in February.

ANNOUNCEMENT is made of the engagement of Miss Anne Randolph of Baltimore, Md., to Alden Kimball, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Kimball of 18 Leunox place.

Miss Randolph is the daughter of the late Dr. and Mrs. Robert Lee Randolph of Baltimore and a granddaughter of the late Bishop Alfred M. Randolph of Virginia. Mr. Kimball is a graduate of Princeton University, class of 1916, and served overseas as a Lieutenant in the United States navy during the war. He is a member of the St. Louis Country Club.

The wedding will take place late in February.

Social Items

Miss Adele Carr, daughter of Mrs. Clark Carr of Albuquerque, N. M., will be honor guest this evening at a debutante ball, which her grandmother, Mrs. J. D. L. Morrison of the Buckingham Hotel, will give at the St. Louis Woman's Club. About 200 invitations have been issued for the affair. Assisting the hostess and the guest of honor will be Miss Marian Francis, Miss Amy Rule and Mrs. Carr. The club will be decorated throughout with pink candle shades and pink roses and the screens used will be of shrubbery. Miss Carr will wear a gown of white satin, veiled in silk net and embroidered in pearls. She will carry pink roses. Mrs. Morrison's gown will be of gray velvet, trimmed with chiffon and passementerie and Mrs.

SHE WILL BE HONOR GUEST AT BALL TONIGHT

Miss Adele Carr.

Carr will be in black net over cloth of silver.

Mrs. Carr and her daughter arrived from Albuquerque early this month and will spend some time here as the guests of Mrs. Morrison.

The marriage of Miss Miriam Duncan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James P. Duncan, 5646 Kingsbury boulevard, to John E. Mitchell Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Mitchell, 6295 Simpson avenue, will take place at 7:30 o'clock this evening at the home of the bride's parents. The Rev. Dr. Donald C. MacLeod of the Central Presbyterian Church will officiate in the presence of relatives and intimate friends and a small reception will follow. Miss Eugenia Bar-roll and Miss Mildred Candy will be the bride's attendants. The bride's brother, Andrew Duncan, will be best man. Miss Duncan was educated at Mary Institute and later attended the Washington University Art School. Mr. Mitchell served as captain overseas with the 138th Infantry and was awarded the Croix de Guerre. He will take his bride for a Southern honeymoon. They will make their home in St. Louis.

Mrs. G. Hayward Niedringhaus of 525 Clara avenue will be hostess this evening at a dinner party in compliment to Miss Mary D. Jones, whose marriage to Harrison Hobitzelle will be the last event of Wednesday. Mrs. Niedringhaus will be one of Miss Jones' bridesmaids.

Mrs. Richard E. Hinrichs of 707 Eastgate avenue entertained with a bridge party this afternoon in compliment to Miss Esther Carleton, who will become the bride of Richard Moore Jr. Wednesday evening. The ceremony will take place at 8 o'clock at the Centenary Methodist Church. Bishop McMurphy will be assisted by the Rev. Dr. Charles Tadlock.

Mrs. F. M. Bender of Dennyson road and Ashby Hills, St. Louis County, gave a luncheon Friday in compliment to Mrs. Victor E. Collett of Boston, who is the guest of her mother, Mrs. Lillian Etherington of Midland Heights. Covers were laid for 12 guests. Mrs. Collett will depart for her home Wednesday, accompanied by her mother.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Barnes of 2503 Park avenue, announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Jessie Barnes, to Harry L. Reichert of 2803 De Tonty street. No date for the wedding has been set.

Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Carlander of the St. Regis Apartments have departed for California and will spend the rest of the winter at San Diego with Mr. and Mrs. David O'Neil of 6481 Ellenwood avenue.

TRADE BOARD HOLDS U. S. MUST LEND MONEY TO SAVE SELF

Committee Says Europe Will Fall Into Dangerous State of Chaos Unless Help Is Given.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 12.—The United States must lend money to Europe for purely selfish reasons if for no other, in the opinion of the Committee on Foreign Trade of the American Economic Association. The loans, however, should be made through private channels and not by the Government directly.

Views of the Committee on Foreign Trade are given in a report just made public. The report was prepared after a study of the foreign trade situation by a committee of ten, which included among its membership Thomas W. Lamont of J. P. Morgan & Co.; David Friday of the University of Michigan; A. Barton Hepburn of the Chase National Bank; F. W. Taussig of the Tariff Commission; and Elsie M. Friedman of the War Finance Corporation.

"Without food and raw materials," says the report, "Europe may fall into chaos which may react upon us, industrially and perhaps politically."

Europe must have our goods, and get them she needs our credit.

Willingness and Ability

The successful financial institution of today offers something more than mere willingness to serve. That, while it is the first essential, is fundamental and taken for granted.

The prime factor, in this age of intensive business development, is ability to extend ample credit to the amount necessary and on short notice. In other words, monetary help that will enable you to finance anything from a small order to a new industry.

The power of a good financial connection is manifold. With Capital and surplus of Ten Million, and resources of more than seventy million, the Mercantile Trust Co. is well qualified to offer such a connection.

WEEK'S MOVIE BILLS OF AVERAGE MERIT

Problem Plays and Comedies
Have the Run of the Screen Houses.

When a young man tries to pretend that he is a crook in order to carry favor with his prospective father-in-law and at the same time tries to convince his fiancée that he is an honorable gentleman he has a delicate task to perform, but the dual role seems to perfectly fit J. Warren Kerrigan in "The Joyous Lie," the top-liner on this week's bill at the Liberty.

Arrested by mistake as an automobile thief, the hero attracts the attention of an amateur criminologist and is saved from a prison sentence by the desire of the analyst to study him. While a guest at the latter's home he falls in love with the daughter. She and her father set out to reform him and then complications arise. Kerrigan is supported by a capable cast, including Lillian Walker and Joseph J. Dowling who played the title role in "The Miracle Man."

Activities of the U-35, a two-reel exploitation of one of the German submarines during the war, is an interesting picture in spite of the fact that it reminds the audience of some of the most repulsive phases of the recent conflict. The film was taken from the submarine when it was captured after having sunk 22 merchant ships.

Madeline Travers, in "What Would You Do?" will be an added attraction for the rest of the week beginning tonight.

Tom Moore in "Toby's Bow," "Toby's Bow," with Tom Moore in the leading role, went on yesterday at the Pershing, Junata, Shenandoah and New Grand-Florisant and opens at the Lindell today. This is the story of an author who works himself out in New York and who goes to a little Southern town to recuperate. Here he meets the daughter of a poor but proud family who has an ambition to be a writer. The author, Blake, finds that she has no real talent, but he writes a story and permits her to submit it for publication as hers. It is accepted and the publisher summons her to New York. This gives an opportunity to show how she acts and what she does in that gay metropolis whose night life is one of the mainstays of movie plot. Of course, the real authorship of the story is discovered, but all is well, as the author and the girl have learned to love each other.

The principal attraction for the week at the Kings and Royal theaters is "Should a Woman Tell?" scenes are laid on the New England coast and in Boston. This play turns on the problem of whether a bride should tell her husband of an earlier love affair. A shipwreck scene is one of the thrillers. At the Kings an added attraction is the showing of Martin Johnson's latest installment of cannibal pictures, made in the South Sea Islands.

Enid Bennett is the star in "The Woman in the Sultana," which opened at the West End Lyric yesterday. This is the story of a young woman who sets out to save her father from the consequences of his infatuation with a younger and "dollar" woman than his wife. This effort involves much amateur detective work and leads to many complications. Several interesting short features also are on the bill.

"The Twilight Baby," Comedy. At the New Grand Central there is a weird "comedy" which is called "The Twilight Baby," but which might have run its erratic course equally well under any other name. It has neither rhyme nor reason and is rather long drawn out. It calls for scattered laughs. The introduction of more or less trained animals is depended on for most of the effects and all the old comedy tricks of the slapstick order are used. One cannot help wondering where the Humane Society was when the baby in this picture was being so egregiously mislabeled as to imperil its health and physical well-being. Most of us would not treat our babies so—then why should we be expected to today when others do it for movie profit? On the bill also is a film play, "The Confession," with Henry Walthall in the leading role. It treads on delicate ground in making its leading motive the secrecy of the confessional and it is unnecessarily long and at times draggy.

After successful runs at two other local theaters "In Old Kentucky," starring Anita Stewart, opened to good houses at the Central yesterday.

ACTION TO SAVE JEWS URGED

Kansas City Gathering Protests Against Massacres in Ukraine.

By the Associated Press.
KANSAS CITY, Mo., Jan. 12.—Resolutions protesting against reported massacres of Jews in the Ukraine were adopted at a non-sectarian meeting here yesterday, at which United States Senator James A. Reed of Missouri, was one of the principal speakers.

The United States was called upon in the resolutions to refuse recognition to any Government in the Ukraine until the alleged atrocities are stopped and amended made.

Senator Reed urged that the Jews of America unite with the Jews of England, France, Italy, Austria and Germany, in taking action against the Ukraine.

(died in London), utterly astonished, said he could not quite make out how that could be after all the time that had passed between us since '95. The answer was that the offer was made in secret and was not a secret treaty. My Ambassador said he was in support, but that he doubted very much whether Parliament would ever ratify such a treaty. England till now always having made clear to anybody who wished to hear it that it was not a secret treaty. He would make an alliance with any Government, whoever it may be! Because it wished to keep its liberty of action. In 1897, Jubilee year, this principle was even put into verse, saying that England could not ally, the least of which was the refrain: "We've got the ships, we've got the money, we've got the money, too!" diplomatist, a man with a very clear head, an energetic character; in all, what one calls a powerful man. I found in him a most accomplished gent choice. We had a long conversation, and, of course, his opinion about oriental matters was of the greatest value to me. It was a pleasure to listen to him. His going to see these lines through him. The conversation also turned on Cretan matters, and on the latest events that happened there. The source from which the latest excesses spring was doubtless not a clear one, and surely not the usual so-called 'Muslim fanaticism' generally talked of in the European press. I venture to suppose that intrigues of a certain meddlesome Power have had something to do with them. In the course of our conversation Krievich openly told me that the situation was far from reassuring, and that the only possibility for getting out of the 'impasse' was to make the Turks leave Crete bag and baggage! Whether that must be so, I, of course, do not know, but as I had the opportunity of pointing out to you at Peterhof, the question of Crete must be solved in a manner that no general imbroglio comes from it which those scoundrels of Cretons are not worth. I have talked with many old and prominent Turks who have all assured me that the whole people had made a mistake of a question of national honor; that an evacuation pure and simple, if acceded to by the Sultan, would cost him authority, crown, even perhaps his life, and that they were all deeply concerned and afflicted (affected). I therefore venture to make this known to you with the hopes that in your wisdom you will kindly be able to find a solution, which is apt to save the Sultan's position vis a vis of his army, and as call vis a vis of the whole Mahometan world. You know by Osten Sacken's reports which motives made me 'lay down my head on the table'. Because I felt and saw that a certain Power was using us all as a catspaw to get us to help her to take Crete or Suda Bay. I would not be one of the party who are expected to appear with bread and salt on the top of the keys (quays) of Crete praying to the said Power to kindly look after the welfare of those poor darling 'Cretons who may one and all roast in hell!' The recent events have shown me that my suspicions were right and that this certain Power means mischief and to use force. That is, they want to expel the Mussulmans, who are born and natives of Crete, like the Christian insurgents, only converted of Islamism, who are the landed proprietors, after these have lost everything they have, and give the property to the Christians, who were all now their own paid tenants and their laborers who revolted against their masters. That is the Cretan question in a nutshell! And that is what I call downright robbery.

Why Kaiser Loved Mohammedans.
What an effect this act of pillage has had on the Mahometan world you have no idea, but I feel and see and hear it, what a terrible blow to the prestige of the Christian General in the eyes of the Mussulman and renewal of hatred you can hardly imagine! The powers concerned in Crete have played a foolish and most dangerous game and that is what compels me to call your kind attention to the matter. Remember what you and I agreed upon at Peterhof never to forget that the Mahometans were a tremendous card in our game in case you and I were suddenly confronted by a war with a certain meddlesome power! You as master of millions of Mahometans must be the best judge of this. If you quietly go on following the lead of the other power in Crete as has been done till now, the effect will be deplorable upon your own Mahometan subjects and on Turkey and you will lose a most precious asset out of your play! Therefore I implore you to give this matter once more your most serious attention and if possible find means by which you can save the Sultan from a dangerous and compromising situation covers ses subjects (with regard to his subjects) and solve the Cretan question in a manner acceptable to him. Don't forget that his army fought valiantly and victoriously for Crete at Larissa and Domokos and reconquered the province! It would never forget or forgive another power the expulsion of their brothers in Asia and their master from a reconquered province. What splendid opportunity for you to step in and to save the Sultan from disgrace, the world from bloody war and gain the gratitude of all Mahometans! Otherwise revolution may come, and the Sultan's blood may one day be at your door! I beg your pardon for intruding like this in your time and repose, but the situation is too serious, the interests at stake are too manifold and I should not wish to see Russia lose her fine position she still now the East; he will bring the hoped for the east; will he bring the hoped for solution? My perhaps rather rough openness may show you how great and intense my love for you is. Best love to Alix. Your affectionate cousin and friend, WILLY."

(On this letter the Kaiser has definitely taken the side of the Turks in the Cretan disturbances. Through the summer and fall of 1918 an attempt was made by four great powers—England, Russia, France and Italy—to rule Crete through a committee, and to force the Turkish troops there to withdraw, at the same time guaranteeing the safety of the Mahometan subjects. Germany and Austria refused to support the policy pursued by the four nations and this refused the Kaiser's position with the Turks. But in this letter to the Czar the Kaiser explains clearly why he is cultivating the Turks—"Remember what you and I agreed upon at Peterhof never to forget that the Mahometans were a tremendous card in our game in case you or I were suddenly confronted by a war with a certain meddlesome power." The certain power is of course England. The Kaiser had the war in view all the time.)

THE BEST COUGH SYRUP IS HOME-MADE

Here's an easy way to save $2, and yet have the best cough remedy you ever tried.

You've probably heard of this well-known plan of making cough syrup at home. But have you ever used it? When you do, you will understand why thousands of families, the world over, feel that they could hardly keep house without it. It's simple and cheap, but the way it takes hold of a cough will quickly earn it a permanent place in your home.

Into a pint bottle, pour 2½ ounces of Pinex; then add plain granulated sugar syrup to fill up the pint. Or, if desired, use clarified molasses, honey or corn syrup instead of sugar syrup. Either way, it tastes good, never spoils, and gives you a full pint of cough remedy that you could buy ready-made for three times its cost.

It is really wonderful how quickly this home-made remedy conquers a cough—usually in 24 hours or less. It seems to penetrate through every air passage, loosens a dry, hoarse or tight cough, lifts the phlegm, heals the membranes, and gives almost immediate relief. Splendid for throat tickle, hoarseness, croup, bronchitis and bronchial asthma.

Pinex is a highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, and has been used for generations for throat and chest ailments. To avoid disappointment ask your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex" with directions, and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money refunded. The Pinex Co., Ft. NATIONAL SECURITY LEAGUE BRANCH ANNOUNCES PROGRAM

St. Louis Organization Adopts Platform Calling for Thorough Americanism.

The policy and program of the National Security League have been adopted by the St. Louis branch of the league, of which Ira E. Wight has been elected president. Edward K. Love is chairman of the Executive Committee, John B. Denver Jr. treasurer, and Robert H. Kolser secretary of the local organization. The league's announced platform is as follows:

1. A square deal for the public, for labor and for employers.
2. Enforcement of laws to punish, and in the case of aliens to deport, all who seek by work or deed the overthrow of the American Government.
3. Passage of laws to control immigration, and to supplement the naturalization laws with provisions to vitalize the benefits and obligations of American citizenship.
4. Promotion of 100 per cent Americanization shops and factories.
5. Assurance that foreign language newspapers, and all other similar forms of publication, shall be foreign in language only, failing which their publication shall be prohibited by law.
6. Provision for national defense by universal military training, which will bring to every citizen a realizing sense of his responsibility to the national Government.
7. Furtherance of good citizenship teaching in the schools.
8. Prohibition of the use, in all public and private schools, of any language other than English as the basic medium of instruction.

ANOTHER WEEK OF EFFORTS TO AGREE ON TREATY OPENS

Democratic Senators Not Yet "Pledged" on Stand and Leaders Hope to Break Deadlock.

By the Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 12.—Another week of individual conferences between Senators in an effort to break the deadlock on the peace treaty opened today with leaders of several groups hopeful that some definite headway would be made within a few days.

Democratic leaders said Democratic Senators were not yet "pledged" to support any definite program of compromise reservations. Senator Hitchcock, the Administration leader, is hopeful, however, that a set of compromise reservations will be evolved soon which will have general Democratic approval and also acceptable to President Wilson and to enough Republicans to insure ratification.

Democratic Senators who attended a conference last night at the home of Senator Owen, Democrat, of Oklahoma, at which compromise suggestions were considered, said a number of points still were unsettled and that the conference would be continued. They said the conference was in harmony with the President's view of accepting reservations which were interpretative but not destructive. Senator Lodge, the Republican leader, expects this week to confer with many Senators, including leaders of the "mild reservation" Republican group and Democratic leaders. So far, however, according to the Republican leaders, the negotiations for a compromise have not reached a stage promising an early agreement.

FOLK STANDS WITH BRYAN

Participates in Conference Looking to Treaty Compromise.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 12.—Former Gov. Joseph W. Folk, whose dinner given for William J. Bryan and a group of Democratic Senators first brought the Nebraskaan consciously forward in the fight over the peace treaty, visited the Capitol today and took part in conferences looking to a possible compromise.

Folk told the correspondent that he stood with Bryan in the belief that the treaty issue in the Senate should be compromised by the Democrats on the best terms they could get and should not be allowed to go to the people at the election.

ANSWERS TO QUERIES

As we have no information bureau, it is impossible to answer queries by mail or telephone. Query for Sunday must be mailed a week beforehand.

IN DISTRESS—Your question was answered in this column, Jan. 6. C. F. The penny dated 1880, and 1891 are both worth from 10 to 20. KOOP—Oct. 19, 1890, fell on a Tuesday, and in 1881 it fell on Wednesday.

READER—The bank clearings are published daily and we cannot repeat them. If he says that he received your money and that it was sufficient to pay the taxes, you can demand a receipt.

H. R.—The principal on your real estate bond need not be included in your income. Only the interest is necessary. You have to make out an owners' certificate on a corporation bond, because on some corporation bonds a portion of the income tax is by the corporation.

W. L. L.—The witnesses to a will do not need to be included in your income. Only the interest is necessary. You have to make out an owners' certificate on a corporation bond, because on some corporation bonds a portion of the income tax is by the corporation.

CHAS. L.—If you have no child, you would get one-half of your income. If you have a child, you would get one-third of your income. If you have two children, you would get one-fourth of your income.

Flyweights and Heavyweights Come and Go; but Short-Weights We Have With Us Always

Tia Juana Barred As Fight Site by Manager Kearns

Dempsey's Representative Now Believes Title Bout Will Have to Go Abroad.

NEW JERSEY TALKED OF

British Promoter Says Offer Has Been Made to Stage Fight Before Eastern Club.

California Governor Will Oppose Fight if Awarded to Tia Juana

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 12.—Gov. William D. Stephens of California announced that if an attempt is made to hold the Dempsey-Carpenter championship fight at Tia Juana, he would oppose it. Stephens said that the government would prevent Americans from crossing the line to view it. Gov. Stephens' statement reads in part: "The people of California have refused to tolerate the evil influences growing out of such pugilistic encounters and have declared them to be unlawful. These intolerable influences would be the same if the contest were held in Tia Juana as if held in San Diego or elsewhere in this state. "It is my duty to command respect for the laws of California and, if necessary, to request the government to exercise its power of regulation and control of the international boundary to prevent this fight."

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Jan. 12.—Jack Kearns, manager for Jack Dempsey, sees little chance for holding the Dempsey-Carpenter fight at Tia Juana, Mex. He believes it must go abroad.

"I can't see a chance in the world of holding the fight at Tia Juana," said Kearns today. "Till I went to San Diego and Tia Juana last week, I thought there was a possibility of holding the bout there; but after going over the ground personally I came to the conclusion that lower California is not the proper site."

"In the first place, Tia Juana is beyond the extreme southwestern boundary of the United States. It is 15 miles from San Diego and transportation facilities are sadly lacking. Then there is not a large enough local population to draw from. "Jim Coffroth told me that he had never stated definitely that he planned to stage the fight at Tia Juana. His chief aim is to be the promoter of the fight in the United States, England or France, he doesn't appear to care. It seems to me that all this Tia Juana talk has been to boost another enterprise promoted by Coffroth and operating there."

"As far as I can see now, there doesn't appear to be much chance of holding the fight in the United States at all. Judging from the present outlook, London or Paris will land it."

"In the meantime, neither Dempsey nor myself is worrying. When Jack finishes his picture in two months or so, he will begin active training and will fight someone. He doesn't care who his opponent will be. If he can't beat Carpenter, he will offer a bout to the contender of next importance, Fulton, Meehan, Miske or any of them."

New Jersey Site Offered.

NEW YORK, Jan. 12.—Jack Dempsey, world's heavyweight champion, and Georges Carpentier, European title holder, may battle for the ring's greatest title in New Jersey before the end of the present year. A proposition is now under consideration by the principals in this prospective bout.

Rickey to Remain Manager, But Names Samuel Breadon As Cards' Next President

National League Club's Head Finds Task of Simultaneously Holding Two Positions Too Great; Says He Will Retire as President at Meeting Tomorrow.

Branch Rickey, president-manager of the Cardinals, is acting in his presidential capacity for the last time, today. Tomorrow, according to cut-and-dried plans, the directors of the 21 Cardinals will elect a new official head for the coming campaign and will tender a new contract as manager to Rickey, which he will accept.

This program was confirmed by Rickey on his return today from a trip in search of new playing material. It was stated, by Rickey that he would tomorrow recommend to the Board of Directors to succeed him as president of the club Samuel Breadon, president-treasurer of the Western Automobile Co., which has charge of distribution here for the Pierce-Arrow Automobile Co. In a recent interview James C. Jones, the originator of the "Cardinal Idea" and a powerful factor in the league's councils in person.

The program was arranged at Rickey's own suggestion and the directors, it is understood, will conform to his wishes in the matter. Rickey stated as long ago as last October that he would not again attempt to fill two offices.

"I have decided that the position of greatest use to the club is that of manager and I therefore elect that position for myself. I feel that I am in touch with the conditions existing on the team better than any newcomer possibly could be and am therefore in a position to do more with the material available."

Breadon is slightly bruised in an automobile accident yesterday, while touring near New York City. One of his companions was killed when the car overturned.

Breadon is about 40 years old, and married. He resides at 4701 Westminster place. He came here from New York 15 years ago, and as executive local representative of his company, is said to have amassed considerable wealth.

Mel Coogan Will Show at S.B.A.C.

Clever Ekern Lightweight Agrees to Appear; Opponent Not Yet Named.

Officials of the South Broadway A. C. announced yesterday that the club will stage a show at the Brooklyn lightweight, a proposed feature bout of the show to be held Jan. 27. Coogan has been meeting the best boys in his division, a suggestion was made by the promoter, Benny Leonard, he being stopped in the first round at Jersey City, Dec. 10.

Coogan owns two titles, a round decision over Johnny Underwood, who is scheduled to meet Leonard in a title contest at Jersey City, N. J., Jan. 15, and a title over Billy Adams, New York Italian, Aug. 4, at Jersey City, while he again defeated him in a Jersey City ring, Nov. 10. Coogan also gained a 10-round victory over Barney Adair.

There is a possibility that Harvey Thorne of Kansas City will be selected as Coogan's opponent.

Tomorrow night the South Broadway will stage a show featuring Charles Crouse (Kid Reagan) and Jimmy Taylor of New York. It will be Taylor's first appearance in a local ring since 1916. The prize is scheduled to go eight rounds with the weight 125 pounds at 3 o'clock.

In the other contest, Cyclone Tommy Daly and Fred Lewis, two local 155-pounders, meet, while Monk McMillan of East St. Louis and Kid Peller of St. Louis furnish the eighth-round preliminary.

ONE-MILE SKATING RACE TO BE STAGED TONIGHT

A one-mile skating race, with 10 of the city's fastest men entered, will be staged at the Winter Garden at 9 o'clock tonight. The starters in the event will be Harry Lang, city champion; Joe Korshaw, W. L. Cornell, Ralph Graves, J. K. Cummings, Howard Norton, C. R. Spencer, C. Hauser, M. Hamlin and Oscar Blankenmeier.

PITCHER PERRY SIGNS CONTRACT WITH MACK

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Jan. 12.—Pitcher Scott Perry has signed his 1920 contract with the Philadelphia American League baseball club and will go South with the team next month. It was announced last night Perry quit the Athletics near the close of the 1919 season.

Miss Ryan and Partner Lose.

CANNES, Jan. 12.—In the open lawn tennis tournament yesterday, Miss Ryan of California and J. G. Ritchie, English veteran, were defeated in the semifinal mixed doubles by Suzanne Lenglen, French champion, and M. Albarran. The score was 7-5, 6-1.

Freak Pitching Is Barred.

HOUSTON, Tex., Jan. 12.—A schedule of 152 games will be played in the Texas League this season. It was decided at a meeting of club owners of the league here yesterday. The season will open April 16. The club owners also voted to forbid freak pitching except the "spit ball."

A committee was appointed to consider an increase in the attendance price.

Eight-Inch Snow Blanket Hampers Football Players

Despite Many Spills Close Games Result in Soccer League Double-Header.

Without a doubt, the 1600 persons who witnessed yesterday's regular double-header of the St. Louis Soccer League at Cardinal Field, enjoyed the games more than any staged this season. The day was ideal for the spectators, but hard on the players, due to eight inches of snow on the field.

In the opening tilt, the Ben Millers and Screw Co. went to a 2-2 decision, while in the second the Scullins won from the Innishalls, 2-0.

As a result, the Millers are still out in front in the pennant race. Added to the fact that the players had to play through the deep snow—the field having been rolled only in the center and near the goal lines—was the recent decision of the officials to play 35-minute halves.

Yesterday was the first time the long periods were tried and for conditioning purposes no better day could have been picked.

When the Millers and Screw Co. took the field for practice the spectators started to roar. Every time the ball was kicked out a bit it would bury itself in the snow. But the players kept trying hard. They went after everything from the start and overrunning the sphere was nothing unusual. Spills were numerous, but the athletes fell on a soft bed.

Hack's Nose Broken.

Despite this fact there was one casualty. That came in the first game, when Andy Hack, the big full-back of McCarthy's eleven, suffered a broken nose, when in trying to clear the ball he collided with Nick Redden, who was taken to a doctor's office and he will be out for several weeks.

The Millers started off in front in their clash with the Screw Co. After slipping and sliding in the snow for about 15 minutes, Ratican's charges started an assault. Several shots were cleared. Then Hack banged one out, but it bounded to the first point.

It was not long, however, before the Screw Co. tied it. McCarthy's forwards carried the ball down the field and after a few minutes' play, he stooped down. While in this position, "Doggie" Shamel banged it through. Shamel's shot was a long, low drive, which was deflected by the first point.

The second round, the Cuddy A. C. of Cuddy, Pa., scratched to McKeesport, while in the third round, the Millers' opponents defeated the Pittsburgh Terminal Coal F. C. in the fourth round. The Millers defeated the Madison F. C. 2-2, in the second round.

The Robins Dry Dock eleven drew the New York F. C. as its opponent, while the four-time champion Bethlehem aggregation scheduled to play the Philadelphia Over Field Club of Philadelphia.

ROW AND AND BRENNAN SET MILWAUKEE CLUB

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Jan. 12.—The Milwaukee American Association club has been elected to the National Association of Professional Baseball Clubs. The club was elected to the association by a vote of 10-0.

In the other contest, Cyclone Tommy Daly and Fred Lewis, two local 155-pounders, meet, while Monk McMillan of East St. Louis and Kid Peller of St. Louis furnish the eighth-round preliminary.

Besides Park, the interested in the purchase of the Milwaukee baseball club are Joseph J. O'Brien, secretary of the New York Giants; Otto Berchert, head of a local real estate firm; W. F. Kinsella, a local business man; and a number of other well-known Milwaukeeans.

Clarence Rowland, retiring head of the club, has no plans for the immediate future, he said.

MINGES ELECTED HEAD OF ROWING ASSOCIATION

QUINCY, Ill., Jan. 12.—The next rowing regatta of the Central States Amateur Rowing Association will be held in Chicago under the auspices of Lincoln Park Boat Club, delegates to the association decided here Saturday night.

Officers from seven clubs met here and elected the following officers: E. M. Minges, Western Rowing Club, St. Louis, president; Warren Hartzell, South Side Boat Club, Quincy, vice president; Elmer Stiles, St. Louis Rowing Club, secretary; Elmer Mutz, South Side Boat Club, Quincy, treasurer.

Four More.

FOUR more days of toil and strife,
Four more days of the gay old life;
Four more days of sin and rum
And then the end of the world will come.

Four more days to oil your throat,
Four more days till they get your goat;
Four more days till we have to start
For a long, long ride on the water cart.

Four more days of joy and bliss,
Four more days that we wouldn't miss;
Four more days till the final shock
And we all fall back on our private stock.

Four more days of rock and rye,
Four more days till the town goes dry;
Four more days till the sun goes down
Then ho! for a rollicking nine o'clock town.

Four more days of wine and beer,
Four more days till the end is here;
Four more days of the good old crowd
Then back, back, back to the H2O!

GOOD EYE, JIMMY.
Jimmy Coffroth says he may not hold the Dempsey-Carpenter bout in Tia Juana. What those Mexicans would do to Jimmy in the way of a shaking down would be amply sufficient.

Between the Democratic convention and the Dempsey fight it looks like a large year on the coast.

The man on the sand box says the packers may have a trust but they sell for cash.

FAIR ENOUGH.
Babe Asher says that Jimmy Wilde is a perfect little gentleman. After making Babe's ears puff up like a pair of boxing gloves Jimmy told him how to get them back to normal.

The wedding march is a hot little tune, but it doesn't mean anything.

Uncle was the last to get in the war and he's going to be the last to get out of it.

No, Waldo, the Ivory Trail is a story, the scenes of which are laid in Africa and has nothing to do with scouting for baseball players in America.

Prohibition goes into effect on Friday. There will be quite a number of people out of luck on that day.

The census takers have discovered that butlers are disappearing. Why hire a butler when you have nothing to bottle?

The butler used to be custodian of the key to the wine cellar. Any one fortunate enough to have any wine in his cellar now keeps the key in a safe deposit box.

Walker Captures Race.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Jan. 12.—A 50-mile "national championship" motorcycle race at Ascot Speedway yesterday was won in 27 minutes 47.3 seconds by Otto Walker. Fred Ludlow was second and Albert Burns third. Walker was said to have made a world's record.

Fulton in Tiptop Shape for Battle With Frank Moran

Giant Minnesotan Is Expected to Knock Out Pittsburgher Again Tonight.

NEW YORK, Jan. 12.—Fred Fulton and Frank Moran will meet in an eight-round, no-decision bout at the Newark Sportsmen's Club in Newark, N. J., tonight. Both men have trained hard for the encounter and each announces that he is in tip-top condition.

Fulton, especially, appears to be very fit for the battle, and unless Moran has improved greatly over his recent form, he should prove rather easy for the lanky ex-plasterer, "Slim" Jim Brennan will referee the contest.

Moran, who is endeavoring to come back, has scored four knockouts in his last six bouts. However, his opponents were fourth raters, with little knowledge of the game. Fulton is at his very best, and if he extends himself this evening, should eliminate the blond Pittsburgher with even more neatness and dispatch than he did in their previous bout, which he won in three rounds.

The interest in the bout, as reflected in the advance sale of tickets, has led the promoters to expect a capacity crowd.

Fulton Once Stopped Moran.
The Fulton-Moran bout will be a return affair and will mark the first appearance of the one-time plasterer in a local ring since his return from England. Two years ago Fulton knocked out Moran in a bout at New Orleans. The Pittsburgh heavyweight declares himself in good condition and eager to avenge this defeat.

As the boxers are compared, however, all points favor Fulton to win and to achieve victory without undue waste of time. The giant Minnesotan outclasses his Pittsburgh rival in every physical comparison, and in addition to his assets in height and reach has the further advantage of a better knowledge of boxing than Moran.

The latter's only claim to recognition is his unlimited courage, and the indications are that he will be forced to display this quality in abundance.

CADDOCK AND STECHER WILL WRESTLE JAN. 30
NEW YORK, Jan. 12.—Earl Caddock of Iowa, world's wrestling champion, and Joe Stecher of Dodge, Neb., claimant of the title, will meet at Madison Square Garden Jan. 30. It was announced last night, Caddock made his acceptance conditional that Stecher should not be advertised as the title holder.

300 Quintets Expected.
ATLANTA, Ill., Jan. 12.—Three hundred teams representing the larger Midwest cities are expected to compete in the interstate bowling tournament to be held here beginning Jan. 25. The entry list will close today.

WRAV'S COLUMN

No Famous Sons of Famous Fighters. FAMOUS sons of famous fathers are rare in any line of endeavor. In fistiana they are totally unknown. Of all the noted fighters have won a place in the sun—or, let's compromise by saying the light—heavyweights, middleweights, lightweights et al., in the last 40 not one has begotten a fighting son—save only for Bob Fitzsimmons, young Bob is virtually an unproven novice.

As a matter of record, few of the old time fighters raised families, and those who did doubtless impressed on their progeny the horrors through which the rising pugilist had to pass on his way to the front, in the days of old. Twenty-five years ago the pugilists' berth was anything but a downy one.

But the day is not distant when we find Mike Gibbons, whose skill carried him to the top of pugilistic fame and fortune almost unscarred and with fewer sufferings than attended the lot of most of the old time fighters, prohibiting his two sons from taking up boxing as a profession. He does not want them to experience what he himself went through.

That the day is not distant when the fistie game will see at least an occasional offspring of a ring champion aspiring to success in the same field as his parents. Boxing today is neither the brutal sport it was in times past, nor has it by the same continuing entourage of thugs and crooks that once tarnished its name. Under the limited round contest system, commission government and with strictly enforced rules much of its brutality and coarseness have been eliminated. Men like Jimmy Wilde, Benny Leonard, Paddy McFarland, Mike Gibbons, Kid Reagan and many others have demonstrated that a man may be a boxer and an honest man at the same time.

Is It Just Advertising?
JAMES COFFROTH'S money for holding a contest in Tia Juana, Mexico, a little village server as a tunnel, Mordechai across the line from California, Mexico, seems to have been on the beeper by the announcement of Carpenter's manager that bout would take place in New York.

While this announcement is incorrect, it seems to indicate Coffroth's Tia Juana proposition advanced no further than the offer. Perhaps it was never intended to, but was designed to serve as a mere bait to advertise the sumption of racing at Tia Juana track, operated by Coffroth. That cattle old watch dog Masterson, in recent articles, the same rude truths into the Tia Juana situation when he points out following facts:

That Tia Juana is a village of 400 people, with no population to help support a fight.
That there are no accommodations to take care of a throng of persons in Tia Juana.
That the nearest city, San Diego, although it has 100,000 population, has not 100 residents who would pay $10 to see the show.

That the other large cities in California are long distances from the proposed scene of a fight.
That there is only one railway line in net deports and no means to supply the attendance of the distance and expense of the trip to net deports and Eastern enthusiasts to attend a fight in Tia Juana.

That, being in Mexico, there is nothing to prevent the State municipal officials from exacting an enormous toll from promoters and visitors.
That adds some shrapnel to heavy caliber shells fired at Coffroth's proposition.

Certainly the selection appears to be of dubious merit from the promoters' standpoint. However, fighters should worry, if the proposition is in bank before they see the ring.

Only the dear old public suffer, and the D. O. P. is more accustomed to that.

MORE TRUTH THAN POETRY
By James J. Montague.

A NATION OF PATRIOTS.

There appears to be no lack of presidential candidates.—News item.

Although the ship of state is rocked upon an angry sea,
Although the surf beats loud upon the rocks that rear alee,
Although the man who takes the helm must be as staunch as steel
And quite despite his hero's heart, may perish at the wheel,
When fair Columbia sends abroad her call for volunteers Upon the winds are wafted back full fifteen million, "Here's!"

Unrest has reared its unshorn head. Men clamor to be free
And emphasize their clamoring with cans of T. N. T.
The rich refuse to loose their grip upon their hoarded gold,
And what is worse, they've got on ours, a brass-bound strangle hold.
But when we search a leader out, the leaders beat us to it
And fifteen million men reply in one stern voice, "Here I am!"

The price of food goes up and up; the wise man with a frown
Admits that he can see no way that we can get it down.
The handit head of Mexico is on the nation's throat;
The still more handit profiteer has rocked the nation's boat.
But when we seek a good, great man the troubled waves to calm,
Some fifteen million noble souls cry firmly, "Here I am!"

Well know they all the sacrifice that such a job entails
Well know they all the surging waves, the bitter, raging gales.
In fact, they each and every one will tell you in one breath
That undertaking such a task is far, far worse than death.
Yet perilous as it will be to seek to save the nation,
The volunteers are equal to the voting population.

THE EXCEPTION.

Wood alcohol is one commodity which gals nothing from free advertising.

THEY'LL NEED AN EXTRA HALL.

P. nomination go to the convention

A Financial Diagnosis.

In a confidential little talk to a group of medical students an eminent physician took up the extremely important matter of correct diagnosis of the maximum fee.

"The best rewards," he said,
"come, of course, to the established specialist. For instance, I charge $25 a call at the residence, $10 for an office consultation, and $5 for a telephone consultation."

There was an appreciative and enthusiastic silence, and then a voice from the back of the room

thickened, spoke:
"Doc," it asked, "how much do you charge a fellow for passing up on the street?"—Chicago Journal.

A Satisfactory Compromise.

"Lend me article X, old man."
"Sorry, Joe, but the best I can let you have is article V."

"Ratified without reservations!"
"Bless me the V!"—Buffalo Express.

A Heart Affair.

"What attracted you to your bride?" asked the judge, after the ceremony.

"Well, sah," replied the ebony hued bridegroom. "De time I seed Dinah here, she kinder tuk my eye. She wuz such a likely lookin'
'oman, an' so handy wid hersef, but when I leart dat she wuz d'eng'
'steady washin' fur seven white fantles, sah, right den an' dar I su-rendered."—Birmingham Age-Herald.

Offensive Conduct.

"That's what comes of riding in a filver," sighed the motorist who had barely missed running down a pedestrian.

"What do you mean?" asked the friend, between jolts.
"That fellow back there wouldn't be shaking his fist at me so aggressively if I were driving a larger and more expensive car."—Birmingham Age-Herald.

Ingenuous.
Mrs. Flatbush—Where have you been till this late hour?
Mr. Flatbush—To the lecture, as I told you before I went.
But you wouldn't be at a lecture
as late as this?
Oh, yes I would. You see, the lecturer stuttered.—Yonkers Statesman.

Some Insignia.
The inquisitive old lady standing beside the discharged but still unformed soldier kept eyeing his red chevron persistently.
"What division does that represent?" she asked.
"That, ma'am," replied the ex-
"represents the division between me and the United States Army."—The Home Sector.

Not Reducing.
Mrs. Bascom was buying some lard at the meat counter. Her little boy was outside waiting for her. A neighbor lady came by and asked the boy:
"Where's your maw?"
"She's in th' store gettin' fat."—
Philadelphia Ledger.

Financial Standing.
"Why do you flourish money so ostentatiously?" asked the friendly guest.
"I'm going to order a porterhouse steak," replied the host. "I don't want to wait for the hotel to make quiries to see whether I am able to afford it."—Washington Star.

Should Be Well Lathered.
Carranza looks like a man who has beaten the barber out of about 1800 shaves. What he should have now is a mighty close one. —Los Angeles Times.

Excellent Reason.
Hicks—You don't seem to take as much exercise as you used to.
Wicks—No; exercise gives me a big appetite and I can't afford it.—
Boston Transcript.

Found It So.
Molly: Our doctor told me that
that hammocks are not good for me.
Cholly: He's right, dear, they're not good for one, but they're right for two.—Yonkers Statesman.
